Our Impact

Storyline Online® is a two-time Emmy®-nominated and award-winning children's literacy program of the SAG-AFTRA Foundation with over 900 million views by children, families and classrooms worldwide.

A digital library with over 80 video read-alouds, Storyline Online® features some of the world's greatest storytellers including Oprah Winfrey, Viola Davis, Allison Janney, Rami Malek, Michelle Yeoh and dozens more celebrated actors who read children's books alongside creatively produced illustrations.

An ad-free literacy program endorsed by the American Federation of Teachers, which represents over 1.7 million educational professionals, each video also includes a supplemental activity guide for teachers aligned with Common Core Standards.

In the last three years, Storyline Online® has seen a 30% surge in engagement, and introduced new storytellers Angela Bassett, Terry Crews, Rosario Dawson, Jennifer Garner, John Lithgow, Seth Meyers and many more to its ever-expanding bookverse.

Visit storylineonline.net and discover how we are inspiring a love of reading and literacy in millions of children worldwide one story at a time.
